

Camp Follow the Leader – Summer 2018

Volunteer Buddies your number one responsibility is to facilitate your camper's experience and participation in camp. Following are the guidelines and expectations for this important volunteer commitment.

GUIDELINES & EXPECTATIONS

1. Be respectful of the campers and their parents, adult volunteers and the other buddies. Make everyone involved in camp feel at home.
2. Be attentive to your camper and listen carefully when you are receiving instructions. Your non-verbal communication is as important as the words you say. Please avoid negative non-verbal communication such as eye rolling, sighing, etc.
3. Your behavior serves as a model to the campers. Please demonstrate the Fruits of the Spirit: Love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control at all times.
4. Please be respectful of all information that is shared with you. Information about a camper is confidential and should not be shared with anyone outside of Camp Follow the Leader.
5. Camp is a commitment. We count on you to be there every day on time. Please call if you will be late.
6. Treat the buildings and grounds with respect.
7. Clean up after yourself and help your camper to do the same.
8. Do not play with/on the equipment or toys (bikes, therapy balls, scooter boards) unless you are involved in a camp activity that includes the use of the equipment.
9. Cell phones are not permitted during camp hours.
10. We encourage you to ask questions and most importantly – Have Fun!!
